

Level Completion Certificate

This is to certify that:

Haytham Zeidan

Successfully completed

Internet of Things

In the course, the learner will learn about the Internet of Things, its history and the beginning of its emergence, what are the components of any system connected to the Internet, and how it affects our daily lives in different fields, identifying the requirements and components of this technology and the general structure of its construction, with a comparison between supporters and opponents of the Internet of things and the views of both parties By two (2) hours of training and interactive.

حزاسا ذياب

Scan code to verify the certificate

24/6/2026